

Bowling Green, Ohio | July 4 ~ 10

Dear FRIENDS,

I am excited to announce evening programs for the 2010 FGC Gathering, July 4–10, in Bowling Green, Ohio. And later in this email, you can find out how to sign up for the Gathering Newcomers' Discount for you or a friend.

Evening Programs

George Lakey, “Conflict as a Gift of the Spirit”

George is a lifelong Quaker non-violence activist who has led workshops in conflict areas on several continents. He currently does conflict research at Swarthmore College.

Philip Gulley, “Universalism: A Hope for Humanity,” the Elizabeth Watson Lecture

Phil is known for his Harmony series of novels and for books written with co-author Jim Mulholland, If Grace Is True and If God Is Love. Phil's presence at the Gathering is made possible by Quaker Universalist Fellowship.

A Showcase of Quaker Talent

We will be celebrating the variety of performance talents of Friends at the Gathering! More details will be announced in February, including how you can nominate a talented Friend who is attending the Gathering.

Amanda Kemp &

Theatre for Transformation present

“Show me the Franklins: Remembering the Ancestors, Slavery and Benjamin Franklin”

This play is part of Quaker playwright Amanda Kemp's ministry to heal the wounds of slavery and racism. It asks all of us, “What are the Ancestors calling you to do?”

Newcomers' Discount

Are you thinking of attending the Gathering for the first time? Sign up for the Newcomers' Discount and receive a coupon for a $20/person discount.

Tell a friend about the Newcomers' Discount. Is there someone in your meeting you would like to encourage to attend the Gathering? Ask us to tell a friend about the Newcomers' Discount.

(More for scroll down).

Workshops

The Gathering offers week-long workshops to refresh both body and soul, to stretch the mind, and to energize the spirit. Watch your inbox in January for a list of workshop titles and short descriptions.

Wishing you the blessings of friends and family during this holiday season,

In service,

Traci Hjelt Sullivan
Conference Coordinator

2010 FGC Gathering; Bowling Green, Ohio

July 4-10, 2010

gathering@fgcquaker.org | 215-561-1700 x 3005